

BOARD OF ZONING APPEALS

Application Procedure

The Board of Zoning Appeals has statutory authority to consider three types of applications: appeals, variances, and special exceptions. A detailed explanation of each is contained in the Zoning Regulations. The following procedure simply sets out the steps of processing an application. Additional information is contained in the Zoning Regulations and on the application instruction sheet.

1. The applicant shall first meet with the Zoning Administrator and obtain an application along with an explanation thereof, with the applicant advised of any special requirements.
2. The application must indicate what action is being requested and shall be signed by the property owner or his duly authorized agent. If the application is signed by an agent, a written authorization from the property owner must be submitted naming the agent and that the owner is aware and approves of the requested action before the Board of Zoning Appeals.

The applicant shall provide, at the time of filing the application, a list of the names and addresses of owners of all property within a 200-foot radius of and including the property for which the hearing is requested if within the unincorporated portion of the county, or within a 200-foot radius of and including the property for which the hearing is requested if within a city.

3. The appropriate fee shall be paid at the time of filing an application.
4. Applications along with the required ownership list and fee shall be filed in the office of the Zoning Administrator.
5. Upon receipt of a properly completed application form accompanied by all the required information and filing fee, the Zoning Administrator shall schedule the request for public hearing before the Board of Zoning Appeals. The Zoning Administrator shall cause a notice of public hearing to be published once in the appropriate official city or county newspaper at least twenty (20) days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The notice shall fix the time and place of the public hearing and shall describe the application requested. A copy of the notice shall be mailed to each party in interest, each person on the ownership list and each member of the Board of Zoning Appeals and must be post marked at least twenty (20) days prior to the date fixed for the hearing.
6. All proponents and opponents shall present their facts at the public hearing and the Board of Zoning Appeals may approve or deny the request, wholly or partly, or may modify the request or may attach any conditions it deems necessary. The Board of Zoning Appeals also may issue or direct issuance of a Zoning Certificate.

7. The Board of Zoning Appeals shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing evidence presented, findings of fact by the Board, decisions of the Board and the vote upon each question. Records of all official actions shall be kept in the office of the Zoning Administrator and shall be open to public inspection during reasonable business hours.
8. Any person, official or governmental agency dissatisfied with any determination of the Board of Zoning Appeals may bring action in the District Court to determine the reasonableness of any such order or determination.
